SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus spells out what it means to honour the Commandment of love. It means loving your enemies, doing good to those who hate you, blessing those who curse you, and praying for those who mistreat you. It means giving to everyone who asks of you and doing to others as you would have them do to you. The ending of this passage includes four additional directions concerning the way of love—stop judging, stop condemning, forgive, and give.

Reflection for Families.

Today is a good day to take a love inventory. Jot down the eight practical directions given in the Gospel Summary regarding honouring the Commandment of love: love your enemies; do good to those who hate you; bless those who curse you; pray for those who mistreat you; stop judging; stop condemning; forgive; and give. On a scale of 1-5, with 5 being "living in love," rate yourself as a parent, as a spouse, and as a follower of Jesus Christ. Where are you living in love? Where is there room for growth and change?

Bringing the Gospel into your Family.

Create a family love inventory that includes four of the practical directions given in today's Gospel: do to others as you would have them do to you; lend expecting nothing back; forgive; and give. Explain the scale of 1-5, with 5 being "living in love." Rate yourselves two times. First, rate yourselves as a family according to how you show love to one another. Second, rate yourselves as a family according to how you show love to those outside of your home—for example, how you show love to neighbours, friends, other family members, and so forth. Ask yourselves where you are living in love and where there is room for growth and change. Make a family action plan and follow the plan.

Choose Life—Cherish them both.

PRAYER INTENTION OF THE POPE.

For a generous welcome of the victims of human trafficking, of enforced prostitution, and of violence.

Father of Goodness, I know you are with me.

Here I am on this new day. Put my heart once more next to the Heart of your Son Jesus, that is given for me and that comes to me in the Eucharist.

May your Holy Spirit make me your friend and apostle, available to your mission. I put in your hands my joys and hopes, my works and sufferings, everything that I am and have, in communion with my brothers and sisters of the Pope's Worldwide Prayer Network. With Mary, I offer you my day for the mission of the Church and for the Pope's prayer intention for this month.

I ask this, through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Little Nellie of Holy God.

Little Nellie was born in County Waterford in 1903 and died in Cork City at the tender age of 4 years and 5 months on the special Feast of the Presentation.

Nellie, considered as a child of Mary, would recite the nightly rosary reverently. She understood the faith beyond her years and could also tell if a person had received Holy Communion or not. The Infant Jesus of Prague apparently danced for the tiny Irish Mystic and gave her a flower!

Little Nellie had tuberculosis, which caused an agonising spinal defect and caries of the jaw bone. She united these sufferings to Jesus on the Cross. The saintly toddler unable to tolerate any food - not even broth one month before her death, seemed to have solely lived on Jesus in the Consecrated Host.

Nineteen months after Nellie departed this life, her grave was opened, and her tiny body was found to be incorrupt and fresh. St. Pius X lowered the age of Holy Communion, following her death, recommending frequent Communion to children, proposing Nellie as their model.

Nellie and the Eucharist.

When Nellie first attended Eucharistic Adoration, she just kept talking to Jesus. The Bishop allowed Nellie to receive her first Holy Communion, even though she was just 4 years old! When hearing the great news, with inexpressible joy Nellie unceasingly repeated, "I will have Holy God!" Her little face illuminated, when she first received Jesus, Nellie's thanksgiving after receiving the Eucharist, often would last for three hours, and once proceeded until evening.

We pray, may the church glorify little Nellie at the earliest opportunity, so we can call upon her publically to intercede for all, to adore the Eucharistic Jesus, by following her loving example!

ACCORD.

Going through a difficult time? Maybe we can help... ACCORD offers marriage and relationship counselling.

Our fully-trained counsellor is there...

To listen to you in complete confidence.

To help you find your solutions to your problems.

For Further Information, contact St. John's Pastoral Centre, John's Hill on 051 - 878 333.
